

Membership Benefits

- THE NEW MEXICO JOURNAL OF READING is a peer-reviewed journal published for educators
- Reduced rates for quality conferences in literacy of interest to educators
- College scholarships
- Land of Enchantment Children's Book Award: co-sponsored by the N.M. Library Association
- Young Author's Award given to individual or school for a proposal to encourage students to become writers
- Family Literacy Night award of up to 250 books to local schools
- Reading Educator Award
- Literacy Award given to an individual or organization that has promoted literacy
- English Expo. a judged writing and literacy competition for students in grades 6-12.
- Communicate Newsletter which shares and receives information about literacy

Camino Real Council of the International Reading Association

Creating Bright Futures
by Promoting Literacy

Calendar

- September 8: International Literacy Day
September 19: Fall Literacy Conference at Manzano High School
October 15: Family Literacy Night Submission Deadline
November 1: Family Literacy Night Winners announced
November 21: Young Author's Grant application due December 3: Young Author's recipients announced
January 30: NMIRA Classroom Literacy Grants due February 27: English Expo
March 4: Reading Teacher of the Year, Literacy Award, and Scholarship Award nominations due
April 11-12: NMIRA State Conference, Albuquerque – Sheraton Uptown
April 22: Awards Banquet
April 25-29: International Reading Conference, Chicago
April 30: Land of Enchantment votes due
May 10-14 Children's Book Week
May 28 NMIRA Grad-student scholarships due

2009-2010 Officers

President: Cyndonna King, cyndonna@gmail.com

President Elect: Katy Hammel, kathrynhammel@comcast.net

Secretary: Jalyynn Clayton,
Theisey260@aol.com

Co-Treasurers:
Pamela Wheeldon,
pkwheeldon@juno.com,
Sonja Chlapowski,
chlapowski@aps.edu

Membership Director:
Sharon Sharp, sharp@aps.edu

Immediate Past President:
Erika Penninger,
penninger_e@aps.edu

